What free trade agreements does North Macedonia have?

North Macedonia has additional Free Trade Agreements (FTAs) with Turkey and Ukraine. In February 2001 North Macedonia signed a Stabilization and Association Agreement (SAA) with the European Union (EU), and in December 2005 the European Union granted candidate status to the country.

What is a saa & how does it affect North Macedonia?

A critical component of the SAA is a preferential trade agreement that allows products from North Macedonia to enter the European Union duty free. The agreement also provides for a gradual reduction of duty rates for European Union products entering North Macedonia.

How often does North Macedonia update import and export regulations?

North Macedonia, like many countries, may revise or introduce new import and export regulations frequently. Subscribers to official government bulletins or relevant trade associations can receive timely updates on legislative changes, tariffs, and trade agreements.

Does North Macedonia rely on EU regulations?

These agreements not only promote bilateral trade relationships but also align North Macedonia with EU standards, significantly impacting its trade regulations and customs practices. Furthermore, the influence of EU regulations in North Macedonia cannot be overstated.
